

Problem Statement

Social media accounts are vulnerable to getting hacked so there should be a software that protects your social media accounts.

Who this Affects

Anyone with a social media account is susceptible to being hacked and having their information stolen or leaked.

What is the Problem

Hackers can hack into social media accounts and steal information or use the hacked account for scams etc.